UNIQUE COMBINATION

The unique combination of selected woods - which are formed into a beautiful surface with our craftsmanship and the incomparable durability of Corian invites you to a daily bath.

The bathtub not only convinces visually, but also with its very high comfort and ease to clean.

The wood shaped by our know-how is seamlessly bonded to the Corian material no joint, no transition, just perfect surfaces and connections.

The warm woods in combination with the white Corian give every room a unique touch: timeless beautiful.

LONG-LASTING BEAUTY.

The extremely resistant solid surface material Corian guarantees optimum protection and a very long lifetime even under the most intensive use.

The outer wood veneers are pressed together under high pressure, completely impregnated with resin and then varnished so that they still look like new after years.
